FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 2041—Rec. 252, dated 7th March 1904.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, of all Districts.

It has been observed that since the introduction of four anna deferred telegrams the cost of such telegrams has been unnecessarily on the increase owing to the addresses not being carefully worded so as to bring the number of words in each to the limit allowed by the telegraph rules. Most of the Treasuries address their telegrams to the undersigned as "Offg. Comptroller, Government of Mysore," "Offg. Comptroller, Mysore Government"; "Comptroller, Government of Mysore"; or "Comptroller, Mysore Government"; thus making the address unnecessarily long by three to four words when a single word "Comptroller" will answer the purpose. There is no other Comptroller in Bangalore and consequently no chance of any message being misdelivered. The sender's address is also unnecessarily long. As the name of the office of origin is always given by the Telegraph Department itself and allowed free, there is no necessity to repeat it in the address. The sender's name may conveniently be reduced in the case of District Treasuries to "Deputy Commissioner, Treasury" or in the case of Sub-Treasuries simply "Amildar."

The number of words in the message proper may also be reduced as much as possible consistent with clearly expressing the intended meaning. As for example, in the case of remittance, the message need only be "remitted <sup>Specie</sup> or notes one lakh" or "remitted <sup>Specie</sup> or notes 50,000
